MEMORANDUM FOR THE DEPUTY DIRECTOR:

Subject: Librarian Positions

1. Inasmuch as it is contemplated that the Reference Branch will eventually, if not immediately, form a separate unit in OIG, distinct from any office, ICAPS recommends that the selection of its top man be handled personally by the Director or Deputy Director. Until the top man has been selected and has reported for duty, it is probably advisable to enlist the assistance and advice of ORE in most cases of subordinate personnel. However, the contemplated work of certain subordinate personnel might be more closely related to the work of other offices, in which case the pertinent Assistant Director or his deputy should be consulted.

DONALD EDGAR
Chief, ICAPS
